How long have you worked for the city?

Twenty years.

What do you do?

I'm a Code Compliance Officer. I inspect commercial and residential properties to ensure they're in compliance with the city's codes. I also educate our residents and business owners about our codes, and I investigate and abate graffiti.

Favorite thing about working for the city?

The feeling of accomplishment that performing my job gives me.

Favorite Core Value:

Integrity.

What do you like to do in your spare time?

Yard work and chase after my four-year-old daughter, Apple.
